

M'GEE AGAIN BEATS OUSTER

Judge Sutter Abruptly Terminates Second Trial of Case Wherein Effort is Made to Rob Incumbent of Office of Sheriff

FLORENCE, Feb. 15.—The second trial of the ouster proceedings against James E. McGee, indicted in the name of County Attorney J. C. Bogard, an attempt to put the present official out of his office, was brought to an abrupt end today by Judge Sutter, of Cochise county sitting as the trial judge. When the case was called, County Attorney Bogard announced that he was desirous of being permitted to withdraw his complaint.

Questioned by the court, Attorney Bogard admitted that he had brought the suit to be brought in his name, although he had not read the pleadings, leaving the drafting of the pleadings to the assistant counsel, R. L. Chamlee and Wiley E. Jones. These gentlemen, he stated, had prepared the pleadings. They had been employed, he stated, by F. J. McCarthy.

At this point the attorneys for McGee asked that the record include the statement from the county attorney and the remarks by the court. Incidentally the attorneys for the defense asked Attorney Bogard some very leading questions. Judge Sutter stated, as an observation, that he had not come all the way from Cochise county to criticize any public official, but that he did not feel that he could refrain from severely censuring those who had brought this latest action. He made it very evident that he felt that such a case was an unnecessary expense upon Pinal county.

A recess of twenty minutes was taken to permit Judge Sutter to look up the law. In the corridor Judge Sutter in the hearing of several witnesses stated that if the same sort of a case had come before him in his own county he certainly would see that somebody went to jail.

With recovering of court, Judge Sutter simply stated that the case had been dismissed and entered an order to that effect.

MADERO BALKS WHEN

the people, I am the constituted president. I will die before I resign."

Amid the confusion at five o'clock today the Mexican government applied censorship to all dispatches and cable messages. This will vastly increase the difficulty of informing the world of the developments within the Mexican capital and will effectively suppress incoming dispatches regarding conditions in other parts of the republic. During the night messengers went about the city locating the senators and asking them to attend a special session in order to discuss the situation and attempt a solution of what is recognized by all Mexicans as critical. The discussion lasted a long time and a great crowd surrounded the building.

The scene was almost identical with that when congress met to consider the advisability of bringing about the resignation of Porfirio Diaz. A resolution was adopted that the committee of the whole wait upon the president at the palace. Twenty senators appeared there, including the president of the senate but were given little satisfaction. They were informed that Madero was not in and intimated that he was on the firing line with Gen. Huerta. Within a few minutes, however, Madero was in conference with the Spanish minister, to whom he made a declaration of defiance to the rebels. Mexican attorneys say the senate has no power to force the president to resign.

Joint action of the two houses is virtually impossible because there are probably not enough deputies in either house to make a quorum. It is also considered questionable that action by the senate would be valid in view of a proclamation of martial law. It is expected that the senate's manifesto will be issued before tomorrow morning. The imminent danger of intervention was referred to the people who are to exercise patriotism to the fullest extent in order to avoid such action. News of the senate's intentions and the failure of Madero to receive the committee was given the public by Senator Sebastian Comanche Rich, an aged Mexican of the old regime, who stood on a street corner and told people what had been done. He described the preparations by the United States for the protection of Americans and other foreigners in view of which the senate decided to depend upon the patriotism of the people.

Ambassador Wilson had a narrow escape from being hit by a bullet this afternoon. A rifle ball entered the window of the embassy and missed Wilson by a few inches.

A proposition is under consideration by Madero and his ministers to declare a truce of from twelve to twenty-four hours. The matter was referred to General Huerta, who has suspended hostilities until 2 o'clock when an answer will be given.

Gomez.

EL PASO, Feb. 15.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez, recently released on bond at San Antonio, today crossed at Columbus, N. M., and proclaimed himself president of Mexico.

It is reported that Gomez was met below the line by a band of rebels led by Col. David de La Fuente. Salazar's chief of staff, Gomez and his brother Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez played a prominent part in the Madero revolution. Emilio was a member of the De La Barra provisional cabinet. When Orozco occupied Juarez, Emilio came to Juarez, and became the provisional president but was put in jail by Orozco. The estrangement of the two rebel leaders has never been explained.

"Talk mediation is as useless as the intervention," said Manuel Lujan, the former Orozco emissary to Washington, now the sole representative of the United States in the northern revolution, on his return from a visit to the rebel camp below Juarez. "If Taft and Madero remained president for six years more, intervention might come. But with Wilson and a change in Mexico intervention is remote. Barrett is doubtless well intentioned but he does not know what he is talking about. Foreign intervention surely would bring a combination of the federalists and rebels of all parties and I believe the apathy of the Mexican people at large, who have so far taken no active part would be broken.

"Americans should be glad that the Mexicans at last are really fighting that the end is at hand of the Madero rule. The trouble will soon be ended and peace will follow. Why mediation while there is fighting. If after Diaz wins, there is continued strife, then mediation may be discussed. But the Mexicans have not given up hope by any means."

Is Trevino Still Loyal.

LAREDO, Feb. 15.—It is stated that information gained from the federal telegraph sources indicates that General Trevino, commander of the Mexican army in the northern states has been ordered to retake Nuevo Laredo.

Flocking to Diaz.

LAREDO, Feb. 15.—The federal troops at Nuevo Laredo, across the Rio Grande from here, revolted in favor of Diaz this afternoon. The troops numbered about 75 cavalry and 125 infantry.

Rebels Take New Laredo.

LAREDO, Feb. 15.—Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, was captured by the rebels this afternoon without a shot being fired. Pascual Orozco, Sr., father of the rebel leader in northern Mexico, rode in an automobile to the federal barracks at the head of a small party of revolutionists and the garrison of 200 men formally swore allegiance to the rebel cause. The city was proclaimed in control of the revolutionists, with Andres Garza Galan who figured prominently in connection with the Reyes revolt last year at the head of the municipal officers, the custom house was also taken in charge. The police and other city officials were imprisoned. The local branch of the National Bank of Mexico was taken over, but no pillaging resulted. Saloons were closed, tonight and everything is quiet. Twenty Americans were given a safe escort to the border.

Colquitt Acts Quickly.

AUSTIN, Feb. 15.—Governor O. B. Colquitt, of Texas sent a telegram to President Taft urging that United States troops in sufficient numbers be sent to Laredo and Brownsville, Texas to protect that section of the border against the Mexican bandits who might cross the boundary bent on looting. In the event the federal troops are not ordered to the border, the governor asserts he will establish a militia patrol along the Rio Grande. It was learned tonight that Colquitt appealed to Taft three days ago to intervene in Mexico. In reply the dispatch from Secretary of State Knox to the governor stated that events up to that time were not considered as warranting an intervention in the "hands off" policy maintained by this government.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The battleship Virginia, with Rear Admiral Usher aboard, arrived at Tampico, Mexico, today from Guantanamo. The Virginia has nearly one thousand officers, seamen and marines aboard.

STRIKE QUIETS.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 15.—Adjutant General Elliott, in charge of troops stationed in the martial law district in Kanawha county, reported today that there were no disturbances in the strike zone and expressed a belief that the situation is now under control. Officers in the field say there has been no trouble in the last twenty-four hours.

REDUCED RATES DEMONSTRATED

As Disastrous to Prosperity of Express Business; Companies Report I. C. C. Order Would Have Impoverished Them

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—To demonstrate to the interstate commerce commission the effect of reduced rates it proposes the express companies reported, that had the proposed rates been in effect on October 23, the test day selected the reductions in revenue would have ranged from 4.96 to 30.6 per cent. The day's receipts for the Adams would have been reduced $18,291, or 23.6 per cent; the American, $19,824 or 24.2 per cent; the Southern, $9,708 or 30.6 per cent; United States, $10,419, or 32.3 per cent; the Wells Fargo, $16,832, or 23.2 per cent. These five companies assert the application of reductions would have resulted in a total loss of $21,996,947.25 in business for the year which ended June 30, 1912 or equivalent to an operating deficit of 5.42 cents for every dollar of gross transportation revenue collected.

The Great Northern Express Co. shows a reduction of 16.01 per cent, which would have produced a deficit based on the business of the last fiscal year of $3,320. The Northern Express Co. figures a reduction of 17.3 per cent which would leave its earnings power "less than 1.4 per cent on the capital stock." The Western Express company's estimated loss of revenue would be 4.96 per cent. This is explained by the fact it operates under rates fixed by some state legislatures comparatively at a low figure. The Globe Express Co., another western corporation, is also operating under rates fixed by many states. No intimation is given by the commission as to when it will enter an order for an express investigation but it is expected some time in spring and will probably be made effective two or three months later.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Divers at work on the dreadnaught Arkansas in Guantanamo harbor have been unable to find out the extent of the damage suffered as a result of grounding on the coral head off Guantamara last Thursday. The navy department has ordered the vessel to proceed to the New York navy yard, where it may be docked.

WANTS DEWEY'S MONEY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15.—Admiral Dewey's dog bit William T. Johnson in July and today Johnson sued the admiral for $20,000. The pup was in charge of the admiral's coachman, so Johnson made him a defendant too.

General county division bill for which sentiment is growing rapidly is passed. The general county division bill allows the counties to divide themselves upon the proper vote of the counties on the proposition, held at either a general or special election. The committee on state institutions and public expenditures brought in another bill yesterday that was requested by the state treasurer. This is the second which will be assistance to the treasurer in managing the affairs of his office. This bill provides that certain funds may be transferred from the general fund to the special income tax and inheritance funds so that the business can be conducted properly. This money is to be paid back into the general fund when the income and inheritance tax begins to come in. There were a few bills placed upon the calendar of the committee of the whole also, and reference was made of some others.

TAFT REFUSES TO CALL

seemed no nearer than it did last Sunday night. Military men believe if Diaz had pressed his advantage that day instead of intrinsching himself in the arsenal, he would have prevailed before dawn Monday. Today was one of rumors and speculations, and the state department officials were kept busy denying the administration had changed its policy regarding Mexico and was about to intervene. With a degree of freedom quite undiplomatic, the reports of Ambassador Wilson and Americans consuls in Mexico, even including caustic comments on the conduct of the war, were given publicity, so that it is probable if congress should adopt any pending resolutions calling for official correspondence regarding the Mexican revolution, there would be little to add to what has been given the press by the state department. Wilson is being sustained and encouraged in his efforts to remove Americans and foreigners generally from the danger zone, and if need be a draft for $10,000 made in his favor will receive attention.

The state department has not commented on Wilson's declaration to accept the invitation of Madero to transfer the American embassy to other and safer quarters. But it is well understood should it become absolutely necessary to include the embassy in the future of war, and a military emergency arises, demanding the vacation of the premises, the ambassador must yield and remove the embassy.

The day closed with officials here anxiously awaiting the outcome of efforts to stop the week-long battle, through the good offices of Senor De La Barra and the Spanish minister, Coloman y Coloman.

Madero, as well as Diaz, denied receiving ammunition and arms from the United States. This adds to the desperation of the general forces. The American government is rigidly enforcing the neutrality proclamation issued several months ago.

It has been the policy of the president, however, to except importations destined for the federals or private interests, provided it is assured they will not fall into the hands of the rebels. Because of the terrific battle in Mexico City, and the strong position of the rebels, no such assurances can be given, consequently the neutrality ban is enforced against the whole state of Mexico.

Federal batteries established near the British legation have been removed. Wilson reported that in all parts of Mexico government troops are said to be breaking up into small squads. It is said it is not known whether this means a collapse of the federal army or some change of policy which is not clear.

Looting and bloodshed sent terror into the Chinese section of Mexico City, where several Chinese were reported killed. Lawlessness is increasing, and looting is widespread. The results of large numbers of federal troops continues to be questioned, and Gen. Blanquet and his command are suspected of leaning toward Diaz. A large force of rurales, fresh from Oaxaca, have not declared whether they are for the federal or rebel cause.

It was heartening to see the generous response accorded to this appeal. "Down with drink!" cried the good citizens of Laredo, and with a rapid motion of the elbow, which he spoke long and patient practice, they downed it, accordingly—Paris letter to the London Telegraph.

FINANCES AND MARKETS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Railroad stocks sold off sharply during the last five minutes of trading today after it was made known that representatives of the firemen on eastern roads had rejected the arbitration terms proposed by the railway managers. Previous to this time the movement was narrow and unimportant with a heavy tone at intervals. The lack of definite information from Mexico and concerning prospects for a strike of the firemen restricted the speculation to small proportions. There was no pronounced selling pressure until the final drive as the bear operators seemed in no haste to cover as the market was dull. Pennsylvania was one of the conspicuously weak issues, selling down to 118, the lowest since 1908. It was influenced not only by fears of a strike but by the reiteration of unconfirmed reports, which circulated recently to the effect that a large block of the roads treasury stock had to be sold. The total unissued capital stock which is free to be offered to stockholders is $80,332,000. Although the reported leading selling interests fixed the price of refined copper for future delivery at fifteen cents the copper stocks do not reflect the weakness of the metal markets. They showed strength at times, owing presumably to covering. No pronounced changes of the money situation were indicated by the bank statement, which marked an improvement over last weeks. The actual balance showed only a nominal cash loss of six hundred thousand dollars and a small gain in excess reserves. The weekly trade reviews are fairly optimistic. The bond market is irregular. Total sales are nine hundred sixty-four thousand dollars. Government four coupon advanced a quarter, Panama threes declined an eighth on call.

No more journeys to hot springs. No more salicylate acid. No more makeshifts, narcotics, opium, morphine, mercury, nor any other vile poisonous drug or pain-deadener. The great discovery, Swift's Sure Specific, for aching bones and joints, nerve splitting pains in the muscles, backache, and every form of rheumatism, is the most remarkable remedy known to science.

It is naturally absorbed into your thoracic duct. In just about five minutes after it reaches your stomach, the heart begins pumping it all over your body.

Away Go the Crutches.

Its action is marvelous. Red-ridden rheumatists get on their feet as if by magic. That cold, clammy sensation that made you huz a red hot stove is gone in a twinkling. Swift's Sure Specific is an extract, made and distributed from one of the world's greatest laboratories, and is one of the greatest remedies ever produced for any purpose.

Works Five Ways.

Swift's Sure Specific is such a thorough blood cleanser that it stimulates the lungs to burn up the poisons; causes the skin to evaporate great quantities of acids, flushes the kidneys and bladder to excrete the deadly toxins that cause uraemic poisoning; assists the liver to convert bad blood into good, rich, red blood, and enables the bowels to move out of the system the waste that has been a daily menace to life.
